I. O. O. F. NOTES.—The Grand Lodge of Virginia will meet in Danville on Tuesday, April 9th. Frederick Kaus, P. G. of Potomac Lodge No. 38, W. W. Sherwood, P. G. of Scepta No. 46, and D. R. Stansbury, G. C. will represent the lodges of this city on that occasion.

The golden anniversary of Potomac Lodge No. 38 will take place at I. O. O. F. hall on north Columbus street on Monday night, March 18th, at 7:30 o'clock. P. G. S. M. J. Durham, of Kentucky, the retiring Comp. Master of the Treasury, and P. G. M. J. T. Given, of Washington, D. C. will address the meeting. An interesting programme has been arranged for the occasion, and the public are cordially invited to attend. This is one of the oldest lodges in the State, having been instituted in this city March 19, 1839, by the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia, at which time Alexandria was in the District.

The members of Potomac Lodge have recently organized a degree staff for the purpose of perfecting and beautifying the sublime lessons of the order, and are now negotiating for the purchase of a complete outfit, which is estimated to cost about $500. This is a feature of the order that is meeting with great favor in the West.

PROPERTY SALES.—Messrs. Green and Wise, auctioneers, sold to day for Messrs. Stuart and Johnson, commissioners in the cause of Thornton and wife vs. Cole et als, the two frame tenements and lot of ground on the south side of Queen street, between Henry and Fayette, to Lucinda Thornton, for $350.

Mr. R. T. Lucas, auctioneer, sold to-day at public auction for Messrs. John H. Greene and F. L. Smith, commissioners, a lot of ground improved by a two-story frame dwelling, situated on the west side of Alfred street, south of Gibson, 15 feet front by 60 feet in depth, to Mrs. Catharine Taylor for $420.

The same auctioneer also sold for Messrs. Samuel G. Brent and F. L. Smith, commissioners, a lot of ground and improvements thereon, situated on the east side of West street, north of King, fronting 58 feet 6 inches on West street by 22 feet 11 inches in depth, to Mr. B. F. Baggett for $700; also a diamond ring, to Mr. S. H. Lunt for $45.

Mrs. Maria M. Robbins has purchased of Mr. I. N. Gregory, a lot on the west side of St. Asaph street, between Duke and Wolfe, for $1,000.

PERSONAL.—Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, returned to Baltimore yesterday from a trip around the world. He left Baltimore last September for an episcopal tour of Japan and China, going by way of San Francisco. He will be in this city on Wednesday next and preside at the Methodist conference which meets here on that day.

Col. William Chapman, of the United States Revenue Service at Atlanta, Ga., is in the city on a visit to his family. While delivering an address at St. George's Church, in New York, on Ash Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainford, who is well known in this city, was taken suddenly ill with vertigo and was unable to continue the services. The physicians attributed the attack to over work. Next week he will start for California or Mexico, where he will remain for two months.

Capt. Geo. A. Mushbach is confined to his home with a severe cold, contracted at the inauguration.

Miss Bessie Carter has returned from a visit to Fredericksburg.

Maj. J. Horace Lacey, of Spotsylvania county, was in the city to day.

Messrs. O. F. Baggett and Henry A. Crump have been appointed District Deputy Grand Chancellors K. of P., from this district from Mechanics and Oriental Lodges respectively.

LECTURE.—Captain Gordon McCabe, of Petersburg, last night delivered a lecture at the Opera House, in this city, for the benefit of the Confederate Monument fund, taking for his subject "The defense of Petersburg and the battle of the Crater." There was a large audience present, fully one half of whom were ladies. The members of Lee Camp occupied seats in front and wore their badges. Captain McCabe was introduced by Capt. K. Kemper. The lecture was one of the most interesting ever delivered in this city, and notwithstanding it occupied two hours in its delivery the audience regretted when the speaker ceased. The lecturer graphically described the trying scenes of the war, extolled the heroism of the Confederate soldiers and their marvelous victories over overwhelming odds, and gave a most thrilling account of the explosion of the mine in front of Petersburg, and the battle of the crater, which immediately followed. He closed with a beautiful tribute to General A. P. Hill and Col. W. J. Pegram.

OPERA HOUSE.—On next Tuesday, March 12th, Mr. S. J. Wheeler and his own company will appear here in the sensational drama of "Grizzly Adams," accompanied by a tribe of Mohawk Indians. An exchange says: "A better pleased audience would be hard to find. Mr. Wheeler seems to have struck the popular chord. On Thursday 'The Great Deer Brothers' (Indians) gave a free exhibition of their superior horsemanship in front of the Opera House to a crowd of interested spectators."

During the great country fair scene in the third act of the domestic comedy of "Si Perkins" at the Opera House next Wednesday night a real threshing machine will be seen in full operation on the stage.

RAILROAD RUMOR.—There is a rumor in circulation, the source of which, however, cannot be ascertained, that Mr. Jay Gould, who has recently become a large holder of R. & D. railroad stock and whose son, Mr. George Gould, was recently elected a director in that company, will soon secure a controlling interest in the management of the affairs of that road, in which event Col. Robert Anderson and Mr. A. S. Durham, who were recently connected with the Midland road and who are known as Gould men, will be appointed to important positions in the R. & D. service.

THE LATE ORLANDO WOOD.—The death of Mr. Orlando Wood at St. Elizabeth Asylum, near Washington, yesterday, was mentioned in the GAZETTE. Mr. Wood was born in Baltimore and came to this city in 1851, after serving in the Mexican war. He had been a member of the City Council, a magistrate, deputy tax collector, oyster inspector and registrar of election. He was in the 67th year of his age. His funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. J. T. Hill on Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

PENNY JUBILEE.—The Baptist Sunday School last night held a penny jubilee at which the returns from the 200 pennies, given out two months ago for the scholars, were turned in. Nearly $100 were realized. At the jubilee vocal and instrumental music was rendered and later there was a feast of ice cream and cake.

BANQUET.—The ladies of this city who took part in the musical portion of the programme rendered at the Opera House, on the occasion of the meeting of the Grand Lodge K. of P., in this city last month, were a few nights since tendered a banquet at Mr. Brengle's by the local lodges of the order in this city.

Why is it so many suffer from rheumatism, aches, pains, kidney diseases, liver complaints, heart affection, etc? It is simply because they will not come and be healed. All diseases begin from a want of iron in the blood. This want of iron makes the blood thin, watery and impure. Impure blood carries weakness and distress to every part of the body. Supply this lack of iron by using Brown's Iron Bitters, and you will soon find yourself enjoying perfect freedom from aches, pains and general ill-health.
